

K-LOVE serves me by keeping me informed of current issues and entertaining me. There are many of us in this community who enjoy this programming, as evidenced by the number of bumper stickers. I believe that there is a distinct lack of Christian programming on the air, and that without K-LOVE we would have many fewer choices.